MARCH MEETING

Afro-American Historical & Genealogical Society New England Chapter

Our goal is to bring people together to promote genealogical research of Afro-American heritage on all levels – from beginner to professional.

Feature Presentation: “The First 600” – Blacks in Massachusetts before 1680

Featured Speaker: Melinde Lutz Sanborn, FASG, is a fellow and vice president of the American Society of Genealogists. She also is editor of the New Hampshire Genealogical Record, co-editor of the National Genealogical Society Quarterly, and program director of the Certificate in Genealogical Research program at Boston University Center for Adult Education.
